Allowable Subject Matter

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior art differs from the present invention in that the present claims have specific liquid crystalline compositions, which comprise at least one compound from formula (1) as a first component, at least one compound selected from the compounds represented by formulae (2) and (3) as a second component, at least one compound selected from the compounds represented by formulae (4) and (5) as a third component and at least one compound selected from the compounds represented by formulae (6) and (7) as a fourth component, or at least one compound from formula (2) as a first component, at least one compound from formula (3) as a second component, at least one compound selected from formulae (4) as a third component and at least one compound from formula (6) as a fourth component. The present liquid crystal composition has wide temperature range of nematic phase, low viscosity, low threshold voltage, high contrast ratio and high voltage holding ratio, which is suitable for use in active matrix display device. The closest compositions of the prior art to the present invention are shown in Comparative Examples of the present specification.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Shean C Wu whose telephone number is 571-272-1393.

The examiner can normally be reached on 9:30 AM to 6:00 PM.
